United States. LIEUT. GREELY'S SITUATION DISCUSSED .- Dr. Emil Bissels read a paper on the exploration of Smith when he received a commission as major general sound at the meeting of the Naval Institute at the of volunteers. March 12, 1865, he was brevetted Navy department last evening. He described in a brief sketch the explorations made by various parties, with a view of considering the possibility the Greely party being safely quartered and able subsist until relief could reach him. Lieut. Colwell, of the Greely relief party of last summer, described the voyage of the Proteus. He thought, he said, that Lieut Greely's party would not start south until spring, and meanwhile they would be safe in winter quarters. He urged the necessity of having a relief party start out as early as possible. Dr. Bissels did not take such a hopeful view of Lieut. chances of subsisting until relief reach him. THE WEEKLY STAR for this week is now ready for mailing; price, three cents per copy. It is a large, eight-page paper, of fifty-six columns, cut pasted and folded, and will be sent anywhere in the United States and Canada, postpaid, for one PERSONAL .- M. Roustan, the French Minister, REPRESENTATIVE JONES SAYS THERE ARE NO FREE TRADERS ON IT. The Philadelphia Times of yesterday contained an editorial entitled "Morrison's Committee Analyzed." This analysis classifies Messrs. Morrison, democratic, and Kasson, republican, as radical free traders, but moderated in their actions and deliverances by political considerations."

Messrs. Mills, Biount, Blackburn, Hurd, Herbert and Jones, are put down as "open and avowed free traders." Mr. Jones, when shown the article, said: "I don't believe there is a free trader on the committee I am a democrat and believe in a revenue tariff; but I am not a free trader. I am for revenue reform, but I want it accomplished gradually. I am opposed to radical or sudden changes in the tariff. I want to interest of the country." Mr. Jones added that he thought he could define his position of the tariff with more accuracy than the Philadelphia paper. WHERE MR. MILLS STANDS. Mr. Mills, of Texas, defined his position as follows: "I am in favor of the lowest amount 529 15th street, opposite U. S. Treasury, Washington, of taxation that will produce the required amount of revenue from customs. In imposing revenue duties I would do so with regard | nedy, Mrs. Moore Sites and Miss Pooke. that enter into the manufacture of iron, woolen, cot- | sent to the South Washington club, besides $50 in ton and other products. The manufactured product would, of course, be reduced in price when the materials entering into them were placed on the free as the dinner drew near was the personlication of too high it amounts practically to prohibition, and we get no revenue. I want to fix the duty at proper lieve in revising our tariff and in reducing many of the duties, where that can be done without injury; but I don't believe that now is the time to repeal our internal revenue laws." The President's New York Trip.

From the New York H rald, to-day. President Arthur arrived in this city from Washington at 6:30 o'clock yesterday morning. At assisted by the following artists: John Hains, the depot he was met by his old time friend, Mr. Meade Emery, Charles Sherrill, Pierre de Charles E. Miller, to whose house he was driven. Chambrun, John Fernal and Edward Shaw. After breakfast the President transacted some private business and in the afternoon he attended a reception given by Mrs. Seth Barton French, the and Sherrill. The Orange Riot. SCENES OF BLOODSHED AT HARBOR GRACE-RENEWAL OF THE RIOTS ANTICIPATED. As stated in The STAR yesterday, the Orange procession in Harbor Grace, New Foundland, Wednes | but the same proportion was not maintained at the day, was fired upon. At first the Orangemen other tables. All of the tables were filled, with the thought the firing was from powder guns carried by exception of two tables, at which some vacunt their friends until they saw their men fall. Four men were killed during the melee-two Orangemen | joyed the dinner. One little pale-faced girl who and two Roman Catholics. Fight persons are reported to be mortally, and from eighteen to twenty slightly wounded. Head Constable Doyle is among the wounded. The night passed quietly, and yesterday one hundred special constables were sworn in. At present there is a full in the outbreak, but the presents with his usual good humor. Among these the neighboring town of Carbonear, a few miles north, is in a state of the wildest frenzy. More than 1,600 men are parading the streets and pre-paring to march on Harbor Grace. Crowds of men are hurrying up from the whole extent of the north shore of Conception bay to the scene of the disturbance. All business places are closed, and most of the private dwellings are protected by bars and bolts. If the riot breaks out anew the officers of the law will be powerless to protect life and property. It is now rumored that the government has cabled to Halifax for troops and a war ship. If the Carbonear contingent marches on Harbor Grace the result will be terrible to contemplate.

THE LOTTERY CASE IN NEW ORLEANS .- The motion to dissolve the injunction obtained by the New Orleans National Bank, prohibiting interference with mail matter addressed to the bank for the Louisiana Lottery company, was argued before Judge Pardee in the United States circuit court in New Orleans yesterday by Messrs, Chandler and Moulton for the bank and the lottery company, followed by Mr. Maury on the part of the government. At-torney General Brewster will make the closing AGAINST IMPORTATION OF HUNGARIAN LABORERS.

The miners in the Connelisville coke region met at Scottdale, Pa., yesterday, and, after passing a series of resolutions denouncing Hungarian serf labor, appointed a committee to prepare a petition to Congress requesting the passage of some law against the wholesale importation of such Hungarians. EDUCATIONAL INTERESTS OF COLORED PROPILE. About fifty colored school teachers of Missouri have been in session at Jefferson City for the purpose of organizing a state teachers' association, considering the necessity and means of raising the intellectual and moral standard of the profession, taking steps for the establishment of an industrial school, and discussing the general educational interest of the colored people. The presents with which the tree was loaded were distributed among the children. Those at night were at the Dunbarton-street M. E., the West-street Presbyterian, the Congress-street M. P. and the Gay-street Baptist. At Dunbartonstreet a very interesting program was carried out, beginning with a tableau of lettered banners, forming the words "A Merry Christmas," introduced with an appropriate carol. Several pretty little Christmas poems were recited and scenes produced, and, with the carols sung by the school, made up a very interesting program. Boxes of candles were given to each scholar and several presentations made to teachers by their classes. At the Presbyterian Sunday school a musical program was car-ried out, after which a sleigh filled with presents, which was mounted on the piatform in the chapel, was unloaded, bes'de which each scholar received a bucket of candy and nuts. Several Bibles were presented for catechism and hymn books for bringing and keeping new scholars during the year. At the Congress M.P. Sunday school a good program of music was given, and boxes of candies presented by Santa Claus to each scholar, besides which ice cream and cake were served. Several presents to teachers by the classes were made, the pastor re-ceiving a very handsome book from his Bible class. At the First Baptist church two handsome Christmas trees filled with "good things" were placed at the chancel rail. Hymns and carols were sung, and addresses were made by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Lodge, Dr. Foster and others. Recitations were also made by some of the little ones. The decorations of the chancel consisted of a large evergreen star, with a border of white flowers. Candies. cakes, cornucopias, books, &c., were distributed. Sensation in the Emma Bond Trial. TESTIMONY DESTRUCTIVE OF MONTGOMERY'S ALIBI Sr. Lords Dec 28 - At the afternoon session of e Bond trial yesterday Mrs. Sarah Yonkers, wife George Yonkers, testified, and her evidence cre ated a great sensation. She swore to being at the house of Joseph Yonkers, with her husband, and to events, circumstances, etc., as given by the Yonker brothers and John C. Montgomery, but insisted that it was on the day following the outrage, not on the day of the outrage. She said she first beard the outrage from Mrs. Joseph Yonkers, and or day of her visit; that she had not been there or seen Mrs. Joe Yonkers for some days before, and did not see her for three weeks afterwards.
